Make a Difference in Your Community! Serve as a Board Associate at CommonBond

Care about affordable housing?

Want to help people with low- and moderate-incomes achieve their goals?

Thought about joining a nonprofit Board, but weren't confident you could help?

Let's Talk!

CommonBond Communities is looking for committed and engaged community members to serve as Board Associates on CommonBond's Board of Directors.

Now accepting applications.

Benefits to You

- Understand how nonprofit Boards work and get experience that will help you serve on future Boards
- Expand your network with others who care about the CommonBond mission and can share their lessons from a variety of professional fields and personal backgrounds
- Gain the satisfaction of meaningful volunteer service in your community
- Receive a $2,000 annual stipend to help offset costs for participating (transportation, child care, lost wages)

Your Responsibilities

- Have a sincere interest in the CommonBond mission
- Offer your take on issues the Board is considering
- Commit 4-6 hours per month for the length of the term (options: 18 months or 30 months)
- Attend all board meetings, review materials, participate in all discussions
- Participate in a 1:1 mentoring relationship with a seasoned Board member and liaison

About CommonBond Communities

CommonBond is the largest non-profit housing and service provider in the upper Midwest. We provide quality rental homes, property management and specially tailored services to over 10,000 people, whose goals are to move past crisis, achieve stability and define their own way to thrive.

About CommonBond's Board Associates Initiative

CommonBond launched the Board Associates initiative because we believe that having a diversity of perspectives on our Board is vital to understanding and working with the people and communities we serve.

CommonBond also wants to expand the opportunity for influence, network building and leadership experience to those who aren't traditionally considered Board candidates.

CommonBond's goal is that the program will benefit CommonBond and the Associates, and will ultimately increase the nonprofit leadership talent pool in the Twin Cities.
