About CommonBond Communities

Our work comes from a simple notion: Home is the foundation for everything in life. As a developer, owner, and manager of over 120 affordable rental properties across MN, WI, and IA, we've seen what's possible with the stability of a home. From high-quality buildings to life-changing support services, we create opportunities to help each resident thrive. We believe in stable homes, strong futures, and vibrant communities.

Recruitment and selection process

- The Board Associates program is publicly announced and promoted through social media, community partners, and existing Board and staff.
- Candidates state their own case during the application process as to motivation for participation and ability to bring a unique point of view to the Board.
- Applications are reviewed by CommonBond staff and Board.
- Finalists will be interviewed and two Associates will be selected.

CommonBond's Board of Directors

The Board of Directors consists of individuals who are leaders in their fields and are passionate about CommonBond's mission and the people we serve. Board members bring a mix of skills and expertise in housing development, finance, strategic planning, fundraising, legal, business development, social services, and information technology.
